Designed and hand made by owner, Justin Rodhe, 2012 Olympian. Justin is a modern pioneer of bent leg throwing and Bondarchuk training models.

Horse harness leather for lifting straps? We did it. Designed for long haul training of the most powerful athletes.

Throw more reps, prevent injury, and don't lose training days to weather with the use of our Shot Put Glove.

Video analysis of all throwing events by Olympian, and expert technician, Justin Rodhe.

Wrist "block" structure automatically creates backpressure on the ball. Faster adjustment with velcro tension strap. Used by Olympic gold medalists.
